ALTAVERA MORTGAGE SERVICES REBRANDS AS CREDIT RISK SOLUTIONS

New branding campaign is designed to reflect emphasis on end-to-end services

Highlands Ranch, CO – Sunday May 6 2018 – Altavera Mortgage Services, LLC announced today it is rebranding under a new name: Credit Risk Solutions LLC.

The provider of outsourced loan fulfillment and due diligence services for mortgage lenders, aggregators and investors became a Computershare company two years ago, and its new name comes as part of the creation of Computershare Loan Services, as a fully unified 'end-to-end' mortgage solutions provider.

"For lenders, the field of loan fulfillment and due diligence service providers is incredibly diverse and difficult to navigate," said Brian Simons, CEO of Credit Risk Solutions. "Rebranding as Credit Risk Solutions more accurately reflects who we are – a provider of private label, white glove mortgage outsourcing solutions."

"The name change will help Credit Risk Solutions stand out more in an increasingly competitive and crowded marketplace," said Nick Oldfield, CEO of Computershare Loan Services. "It also identifies us as a highly skilled mortgage partner capable of complementing any business channel, from retail, consumer-direct, correspondent and wholesale. As the new website says, 'you handle the clients – we'll handle the work.'"

Along with launching a new website at CreditRiskSolutions.com, the rebranding includes new marketing materials, updated client and back office materials, and an enhanced presence on social media.

The company will retain a DBA under its previous name in the short term for licensing purposes.
